Foreword

We are now in the process of preparing ourselves for a life career. Some of us are better prepared than others. Yet, the opportunity is there for those who want it; and those who don't want it are not forced to take it.

Those who do not avail themselves of the opportunity soon realize what a mistake they have made. They feel their life is being wasted and allow themselves to continue along that path.

There are those among us who are treading that path—not because they have to, but because they want to. They do not realize that it is never too late to step out and make an effort to succeed in life. What one has done, or failed to do, is in the past; what he does now is the important thing.

We of the Record Staff feel this can best be summed up in the motto of Wheeling High's 1967 graduating class:

"The Future Depends Upon the Present"

Susie
Your really a good

Dedication

TO WHOM WE DEDICATE THE YEARBOOK

It would be a difficult task to sum up fifteen years of service by a dedicated man in a single paragraph. Those fifteen years represent a great deal of hardship and work to Mr. Edwin Murphy, to whom we, the Class of 1967, dedicate our yearbook.

For the past twelve years, Mr. Murphy has occupied the position of head basketball coach, a job which he is well qualified to hold.

A graduate of Wheeling High School, Mr. Murphy played football under Coach Bob Roe. His understanding and love of sports stem from years of practice and experience.

Mr. Murphy has given unselfishly of his time, worked with "would-be" athletes, and helped build boys into men. He has taught both boys and girls alike a valuable lesson—to give a task "all you have," and to develop your abilities to their fullest. He has been the supreme example of sportsmanship, he has taught us to win with humility, but lose with pride.

The Class of 1967 takes great pride in having known a man such as Mr. Murphy. He has been a friend, confidante, and leader to many of us and for that we shall never forget him.

And so to you, Mr. Edwin Murphy, we gratefully extend our appreciation for helping to make our three years at Wheeling High School memorable ones. We sincerely hope that you continue to help and encourage young people as you have done with us.

Education Board To Move

The Ohio County Board of Education, housed in the above building at 2130 Chapline St. since it moved there from the Wheeling High School building many years ago, will be in new quarters in the Seibert Building, Elm Grove this fall. The recently purchased structure will be remodeled and renovated at a cost of approximately $134,000.

Junior Town Meeting

Daniel Beckner, Steve Kanick, Harry Holbert Jr.

The Junior Town Meeting of the Air is a regular series of radio debates between area high schools on controversial issues of the day. It is sponsored annually by Oglebay Institute and Radio Station WWVA in conjunction with Bethany College. Chosen for their poise and speaking ability, the debaters were coached by Mrs. Shields Brubeck and Donald Rode.

Know Your State Government

"Know Your State Government Day" is an annual honor bestowed on outstanding history students. They travel to Charleston to see their state government in action. The representatives are chosen from members of the Junior Class on the basis of their grades in American History and are voted on by members of the history classes.

McKinley Technical-Vocational Center

ROY E. POTTER, Director

Forty years ago, McKinley became the first trade school in West Virginia and has progressed until today, as the McKinley Vocational-Technical Center, it serves the students of three high schools as a workshop for the trades. Under Mr. Potter's expert hand it offers courses in computer analysis, business machines, office procedures, distributive education, woodworking, sheet metal, electronics, machine shop and welding, in addition to automobile mechanics, electrical construction, printing and mechanical drawing. Serving more than 400 students on a half-day basis, McKinley helps prepare them for the future.
